Last Friday Revised Edition is the updated and revised version of our hidden movement, hunting, and deduction board game, inspired by the popular "slasher" horror movie genre. Subtle but important changes to the rules enhance the game balance, giving to the Maniac more opportunities than ever to spread terror in Camp Apache! This revised edition also features new cover art.

Last Friday Revised Edition is a game for 2 to 6 players, divided into four chapters full of horror and suspense ("Arrival at the Camp", "The Chase", "The Massacre", and "The Final Chapter"), with a playing time of 30 to 45 minutes per chapter, which you can play individually or together in a long night of terror!

In the role of young campers during Summer in 1980, five players are challenged to survive a long weekend of terror in a camp in the woods, while one of them takes the role of the undying psychopath hiding in the shadows of the forest.

Depending on which of the four "chapters" you play, the goal of the game changes, creating highly engaging gameplay: in some chapters the maniac is trying to find the campers, but in others, they are trying to find him. Each chapter plays out differently as the hunter becomes the prey, and then comes back from the dead looking for revenge. If a player dies during a chapter, they will come back in the next chapter with a different character, adding an additional level of replayability.

The nightmare is about to begin... again!
