Zombicide: Chronicles Game Master Starter Kit

The GameMaster Starter Kit gives GMs in Zombicide: Chronicles some new tools to help them run their games. First, there's a GM screen that will help keep their notes safe from prying gamer eyes. There are also 13 Survivor ID sheets that they can either use themselves or hand out to players for their use. Finally, there are Stress dials so players can keep track of just how intense things are getting.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- GM Screen - Keep your notes and plans hidden from the other players' eyes. You don't want them to accidentally spoil the surprises you have in store.
- Survivor ID Sheets - Great for creating NPCs the players will run into, or as tools for the players to make their characters.
- Modify As You Want - Keep track of just how intense things are getting by using special Stress dials.
